

Experiments in Worldly Ethnography

Edited by Sevasti-Melissa Nolas,
Rachael Stryker, and Christos Varvantakis

WID SOZIAL UND
KULTURANNEHMISSIE
In Zusammenarbeit mit der IFC

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

NEW YORK AND LONDON

Contents

	List of figures	ix
	List of contributors	x
1	Ethnography at the worldly edge SEVASTI-MELISSA NOLAS, RACHAEL STRYKER, AND CHRISTOS VARVANTAKIS	1
2	Biopedagogy and school-based social reform via Waldorf (Steiner) Education: The ethnographic importance of paradox ELISA J. SOBO	25
3	Ethnographer, interrupted: Revisitation as worldly ethnography RACHAEL STRYKER	46
4	Minting worlds: Economic minors tracing money in a Global Financial Crisis SEVASTI-MELISSA NOLAS, CHRISTOS VARVANTAKIS, AND VINNARASAN ARULDOSS	65
5	Data ethnography: Doing multimodal ethnography in a data and AI-driven world VERONICA BARASSI	89
6	Ethnographic filmmaking for understanding peacebuilding: A multisited and multimodal approach COLLEEN ALENA O'BRIEN	105
7	The affective resonance of violent acts: Doing ethnography on a risky planet JOSHUA MCNAMARA	119

viii Contents

8	A translocal ethnography with survivors of human trafficking: A sensorial, hyperlink cinema narrative RUNA LAZZARINO	137
9	The poetics of resonance: Worldly ethnography as empathic and aesthetic attendance SIMONE TOJI	164
10	The seeing body and the feeling eye MICHELE A. FEDER-NADOFF	179
11	Looking for the margin: An ethnography of gradualness JASAMIN KASHANIPOUR	213
	Index	231