

Contents

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	vii
INTRODUCTION	ix
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xvi
1. Market impact and policy drift: Belgian higher education
WILLY WIELEMANS AND JOHAN L. VANDERHOEVEN	1
2. The Federal Republic of Germany
ULRICH TEICHLER	29
3. How to steer student flows and higher education: the headache facing the Finnish Ministry of Education
OSMO KIVINEN AND RISTO RINNE	51
4. The reform of French higher education, or the Ox and the Toad: a fabulous tale
GUY NEAVE	65
5. Patterns of access to higher education in the Republic of Ireland
PATRICK CLANCY	81

6. Italy
ROBERT O. MOSCATI	91
7. The Netherlands: from corrective to facilitative governmental policies
FRANS A. VAN VUGHT	109
8. Norway: towards a more indirect model of governance?
PER OLAF AAMODT, SVEIN KYVIK AND HANS SKOIE	129
9. Sweden in the aftermath of educational reform
JAN ERIK LANE	145
10. The changing relationship between government and higher education in Britain
GEOFFREY WALFORD	165
11. Changing policy in Australian higher education
DESMOND D. TAYLOR	185
12. Autonomy and accountability in US higher education
ROBERT O. BERDAHL AND JOHN D. MILLETT	215
13. Conclusion
GUY NEAVE AND FRANS A. VAN VUGHT	239
INDEX	257