

Responding to Student Expectations

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Contents

FOREWORD.....	3
INTRODUCTION
Institutional Responses to Changing Student Expectations: Project Overview Peter Coaldrake	7
STUDENT AND UNIVERSITY RELATIONSHIPS
Higher Education, Students, Society: Multi-lateral Relationships Ruth Dunkin	19
Government Policy and Student Expectations: The Canadian Experience Michael Conlon	37
What Should Students Be Entitled to Expect From Universities? John Byron	45
INSTITUTIONAL AND GOVERNMENT PERSPECTIVES
A Case Study of the Students' View on the Educational Process and on University Management Eva Münsterova, Jarmila Bastova and Ales Vlk	53
Students' Changing Expectations of Higher Education and the Consequences of Mismatches with the Reality Richard James	71
Encouraging University Responsiveness: Student-focussed Incentives in Australian Higher Education Michael Gallagher	85
Marketing in Higher Education: Matching Promises and Reality to Expectations Sarah Davies	103

LEGAL ISSUES AND PUBLIC POLICY

A Survey of Student-institution Relationships in Europe Dennis Farrington	115
Responding to Legal Liability Anthony P. Moore	131
The Danish Parliamentary Omsudsman's Experience With Regard to the Legal Protection of Students Jon Andersen	137
Handling Student Grievances: What Lessons are there for Institutions in the Cases Brought before the Ombudsman in Australia? Bruce Barbour	141
Notes on Authors	151