

Policy and University Faculty Governance

Edited by

Michael T. Miller

University of Arkansas

Julie Caplow

University of Missouri–Columbia

CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | vii |
| Julie A. Caplow | |

Part I. The Context

| | |
|--|----|
| 1. Historical Overview of Faculty Governance in Higher Education | 3 |
| Vicki J. Rosser | |
| 2. The National Scene: Faculty Involvement in Governance | 19 |
| Kang Bai | |
| 3. The College Trustees' Role in Academic Governance | 31 |
| Houston Davis | |

Part II. Governance within the Academic Organization

| | |
|---|----|
| 4. Leadership in Faculty Governance: Choice, Mandate, and Default | 45 |
| Michael T. Miller and Myron L. Pope | |
| 5. Path Analysis and Power Rating of Communication Channels in a Faculty Senate Setting | 59 |
| Michael T. Miller, Carl Williams, and Brian J. Garavalia | |
| 6. Faculty Governance in the Academic Department: The Role of the Chair | 75 |
| Steve Vacik | |
| 7. The Relationship between Faculty and Academic Administration in Governance Functions | 85 |
| Kenneth W. Borland | |

Part III. Governance Issues and Trends

| | |
|---|-----|
| 8. Academic Governance and Fiction Ethan Heinen and Julie A. Caplow | 97 |
| 9. Faculty Governance in Community Colleges: A Distinct Perspective of Broad-Based Decision Making Myron L. Pope | 119 |
| 10. Involving Faculty Members in Institutional Fundraising Thomas Bila | 137 |
| 11. Conclusion Michael T. Miller | 153 |
| About the Authors | 161 |