

Cary Nelson and the Struggle for the University

Poetry, Politics, and the Profession

Edited by Michael Rothberg
and
Peter K. Garrett

State University of New York Press

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
1 An Exemplary Career: Cary Nelson and the Struggle for the University Michael Rothberg and Peter K. Garrett	1
PART 1: THE CANON AND THE POLITICS OF POETRY	11
2 Preserving Thresholds: The Scholar in the Museum, Junk Shop, and Library Edward Brunner	13
3 Cary Nelson: Expanding the Canon of American Poetry Walter Kalaidjian	31
4 “We Should Always Read What Other People Assure Us Is No Good”: The Good of the No Good Grant Farred	45
5 The Lives of Haiku Poetry: Self, Selflessness, and Solidarity in Concentration Camp Haiku Karen Jackson Ford	59
6 Contexts, Choruses, and Katabases (Canonical and Non-): Some Methodological Implications of Cary Nelson’s Recovery Work Michael Thurston	75
PART 2: CORPORATIZATION AND THE POLITICS OF THE ACADEMY	93
7 Worlds to Win: Toward a Cultural Studies of the University Itself Marc Bousquet	95

8	The Organization Man Michael Bérubé	113
9	The Humanities, the University, and the Enemy Within Stephen Watt	123
10	Everyday Life at the Corporate University Jane Juffer	141
11	Who's Afraid of Cultural Studies? Lisa Duggan	159
12	The Rise of the Global University Andrew Ross	167
PART 3: PEDAGOGY AND THE POLITICS OF MENTORING		185
13	Graduate Mentoring: A Poetics Marsha Bryant	187
14	Empire and the Anxiety of Influence Brady Harrison	193
15	Learning My Professional Responsibilities James D. Sullivan	201
16	Let Us Now Praise Famous Men Jim Finnegan	205
17	Cary Nelson at the Naval Academy Jeff Sychterz	209
18	Without Shame: On Cary Nelson's Legacy John Marsh	217
AFTERWORD
19	Activism and Community in the Academy Cary Nelson	221
	List of Contributors	231
	Index	235