

The International Imperative in Higher Education

By

Philip G. Altbach

Center for International Higher Education, Boston College, USA

SENSE PUBLISHERS
ROTTERDAM / BOSTON / TAIPEI

Table of Contents

PREFACE	ix
INTRODUCTION	xi
PART 1
GLOBALIZATION AND ITS IMPLICATIONS
1 The Imperial Tongue: English as the Dominating Academic Language	1
2 Globalization and Forces for Change in Higher Education	7
3 The Complexities of Global Engagement	11
PART 2
GLOBAL ISSUES
4 Corruption: Challenge to Internationalization	15
5 Access Means Inequality	21
6 What International Advice Do Universities Need? (with Jamil Salmi)	25
7 The Perils of Commercialism: Australia's Example (with Anthony Welch)	29
8 Reforming Higher Education in the Middle East— and Elsewhere	33
9 The “Subprime” Market and International Higher Education	37
PART 3
MOBILITY, BRAIN DRAIN, AND BRAIN EXCHANGE?
10 Brain Drain or Brain Exchange?	41
11 The Complexities of 21st-Century Brain Exchange	47
12 Another Week, Another Scandal: Immigration Dilemmas and Political Confusion (with Liz Reisberg)	51
13 Getting Graduates to Go Home: Not So Easy (with Wanhua Ma)	57

PART 4

THE ACADEMIC PROFESSION

- 14 Academic Salaries and Contracts: What Do We Know?
(with Iván F. Pacheco) 61
- 15 The Intricacies of Academic Remuneration 65
- 16 Academic Career Structures: Bad Ideas
(with Christine Musselin) 69
- 17 Academic Salaries, Academic Corruption, and the Academic Career 73

PART 5

RANKINGS AND WORLD-CLASS

- 18 The Overuse of Rankings 77
- 19 Ranking Season Is Here 81
- 20 Hong Kong's Academic Advantage (with Gerard A. Postiglione) 89
- 21 The Challenges of Building a World-Class University:
Lessons from Slovenia 95

PART 6

BRANCH CAMPUSES AND FRANCHISING

- 22 Is There a Future for Branch Campuses? 101
- 23 Twinning and Branch Campuses: The Professorial Obstacle 107
- 24 Franchising—the McDonaldization of Higher Education 111

PART 7

KNOWLEDGE DISTRIBUTION

- 25 The Costs and Benefits of "Open Access" 115
- 26 Anarchy, Commercialism, and "Publish or Perish"
(with Brendan Rapple) 119

PART 8

AGENTS AND RECRUITERS: A GLOBAL DILEMMA

- 27 The Ambiguities of Working with Third-Party Recruiters
(with Liz Reisberg) 123
- 28 Agents and Third-Party Recruiters in International
Higher Education 129

PART 9

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- 29 Academic Freedom: A Realistic Appraisal 135
- 30 “Meddling” or “Steering”: The Politics of Academic Decision
Making in Hong Kong (with Gerard A. Postiglione) 139

PART 10

ASIAN PERSPECTIVES

- 31 The Asian Higher Education Century? 143
- 32 The Humanities and Social Sciences in Asia:
Endangered Species? 149

PART 11

CHINA

- 33 Chinese Challenges: Toward a Mature Academic System 153
- 34 Chinese Higher Education in an Open-Door Era 157

PART 12

INDIA

- 35 India’s Higher Education Challenges 163
- 36 Getting Value for Money in Higher Education
(with Pawan Agarwal) 167
- 37 India’s Effort to Join 21st-Century Higher Education
(with N. Jayaram) 171
- 38 The Achilles Heel of India’s high-Tech Future: World-Class
Universities 175
- 39 Kerala: The Dilemmas of Equality in Higher Education
(with Eldho Mathews) 179
- 40 India’s Open Door to Foreign Universities 187

- ABOUT THE AUTHOR AND COAUTHORS 193