

THE IMPACT OF RESEARCH IN EDUCATION

An international perspective

Edited by Ben Levin, Jie Qi, Hilary Edelstein and Jacqueline Sohn

Contents

List of figures and tables		iv
Notes on contributors		vi
Foreword by Andreas Schleicher		x
one	Introduction and overview	I
two	Knowledge mobilisation and utilisation	23
three	Knowledge mobilisation and utilisation in the Singapore education system: the nexus between researchers, policy makers and practitioners	41
four	Knowledge mobilisation in education in England	65
five	Knowledge mobilisation in Australian education research	85
six	Knowledge mobilisation in the Republic of Korea: linkages with economic, political and social development	109
seven	Mobilising knowledge in higher education in Denmark	131
eight	Knowledge mobilisation in education in Canada and the role of universities	147
nine	Knowledge mobilisation in education in South Africa	165
ten	Knowledge mobilisation and education policy making in China	183
eleven	The federal challenge to university-based education research in the United States: turning research into policy and practice	209
twelve	Reflections on the mobilisation of education research	243
Index		263