

Zombies in the Academy

Living Death in Higher Education

Andrew Whelan, Ruth Walker and Christopher Moore

intellect Bristol, UK / Chicago, USA

Contents

---

Introduction	1
Section 1: Zombification in the corporate university	9
First as tragedy, then as corpse Andrew Whelan	11
'Being' post-death at Zombie University Rowena Harper	27
University life, zombie states and reanimation Rowan Wilken and Christian McCrea	39
The living dead and the dead living: contagion and complicity in contemporary universities Holly Randell-Moon, Sue Saltmarsh and Wendy Sutherland-Smith	53
Zombie solidarity Ann Deslandes and Kristian Adamson	67
The Journal of Doctor Wallace David Slattery	79
Section 2: Moribund content and infectious technologies	89
Zombie processes and undead technologies Christopher Moore	91
The botnet: webs of hegemony/zombies who publish Martin Paul Eve	105

The intranet of the living dead: software and universities Jonathan Paul Marshall	119
Virtual learning environments and the zombification of learning and teaching in British universities Nick Pearce and Elaine Tan	137
Mapping zombies: a guide for digital pre-apocalyptic analysis and post-apocalyptic survival Mark Graham, Taylor Shelton and Matthew Zook	147
Infectious textbooks Gordon S. Carlson and James J. Sosnoski	157
Section 3: Zombie literacies and pedagogies	173
Undead universities, the plagiarism ‘plague’, paranoia and hypercitation Ruth Walker	175
EAP programmes feeding the living dead of academia: critical thinking as a global antibody Sara Felix	189
Zombies in the classroom: education as consumption in two novels by Joyce Carol Oates Sherry R. Truffin	203
Queer pedagogies in zombie times: parody, neo-liberalism and higher education Daniel Marshall	217
Zombies are us: the living dead as a tool for pedagogical reflection Shaun Kimber	231
Escaping the zombie threat by mathematics Hans Petter Langtangen, Kent-Andre Mardal and Pål Røtnes	243
Toward a zombie pedagogy: embodied teaching and the student 2.0 Jesse Stommel	265

Section 4: The post-apocalyptic terrain	277
'Sois mort et tais toi': zombie mobs and student protests Sarah Juliet Lauro	279
Living-dead man's shoes? Teaching and researching glossy topics in a harsh social and cultural context David Beer	297
Feverish homeless cannibal George Pfau	309
A report on the global Viral Z outbreak and its impact on higher education Howard M. Gregory II and Annie Jeffrey	321
Bibliography	333
List of contributors	367
Index	379