

Tom Christensen · Åse Gornitzka
Francisco O. Ramirez
Editors

Universities as Agencies

Reputation and Professionalization

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Part I Introduction

- 1 Reputation Management, Social Embeddedness, and Rationalization of Universities 3
Tom Christensen, Åse Gornitzka and Francisco O. Ramirez

Part II Reputation Management

- 2 Reputation Management in Nordic Universities—Profiles and Development Over Time 43
Tom Christensen and Åse Gornitzka
- 3 Reputation Management Revisited: U.S. Universities
Presenting Themselves Online 67
S. Gabriela Gavrilă and Francisco O. Ramirez
- 4 Reputation Profiles of Chinese Universities—Converging with Global Trends or National Characteristics? 93
Liang Ma and Tom Christensen

5	Social Science Disciplines in Complex Development Contexts—The Professional Dimension of Reputation Management	117
	Tom Christensen and Lars Klemsdal
6	What We Stand For: Reputation Platforms in Scandinavian Higher Education	155
	Arlid Wæraas and Høgne Lerøy Sataøen
Part III Social Embeddedness and Organizational Differentiation
7	Marketing the American University: Professionalization of Development in Entrepreneurial Universities	185
	Nadine Ann Skinner and Francisco O. Ramirez
8	Enacting Diversity in American Higher Education	209
	Naejin Kwak, S. Gabriela Gavrilă and Francisco O. Ramirez
9	The Legal Rationalization of American Higher Education	229
	Jared Furuta and Francisco O. Ramirez
Part IV Concluding Reflections
10	Socially Embedded Universities and the Search for Meaning	251
	Bjørn Stensaker
	Index	271