

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AND QUALITY ASSURANCE IN HIGHER EDUCATION

International Collaborations for the Enhancement of Learning

Edited by Masahiro Tanaka

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xiv
Foreword by Alison Cook-Sather	xv
1 The international diversity of student engagement Masahiro Tanaka	1
2 Students as partners in Swedish higher education: A driver for quality Åsa Kettis	9
3 Student engagement in Finnish higher education: Conflicting realities? Jani Ursin	24
4 Student engagement in quality in UK higher education: More than assurance? Stuart Brand and Luke Millard	35
5 Student engagement in the United States: From customers to partners? Peter Felten	46
6 Old technologies, new opportunities: Rethinking traditional approaches to student engagement in Australia Ryan Naylor	57

7	Student engagement in Brazilian higher education and its sociopolitical dimension Bernardo Sfredo Miorando	73
8	The relevance of student engagement in African higher education: The Mozambican case Nelson Casimiro Zavale and Patrício V. Langa	90
9	Student engagement in quality assurance of higher education in Kazakhstan: Ambiguous forms and invisible procedures Kuanysh Tastanbekova	109
10	Student engagement in Chinese higher education institutions for the improvement of educational quality Tong Yang	124
11	Student engagement for the improvement of teaching: The peculiar form of student faculty development in Japan Masahiro Tanaka	136
12	Transformation toward pro-learning outcomes in Japanese higher education institutions: The role and challenges of assessment for student engagement Reiko Yamada	149
13	The future of student engagement Masahiro Tanaka, Ryan Naylor, Jani Ursin and Nelson Casimiro Zavale	162
	Index	170