

CANADIAN ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY

Edited by

C. TYLER DESROCHES, FRANK JANKUNIS, AND BYRON WILLISTON

McGill-Queen's University Press
Montreal & Kingston • London • Chicago

Contents

Figures vii

Introduction: Situating Environmental Philosophy in Canada 3
C. Tyler DesRoches, Frank Jankunis, and Byron Williston

PART ONE FOUNDATIONAL ISSUES IN ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY

- 1 The End of Mechanism: The Machine Model of Nature,
Technologies of Information, and the Ecological Turn 19
Philip Rose
- 2 On the Possibility of a Planetary Entitlement 40
Allen Habib
- 3 Can Autopoiesis Ground a Response to the Selectionist Critique of Ecocentrism? 56
Antoine C. Dussault
- 4 Sentience, Life, Richness 83
Gregory M. Mikkelsen

PART TWO CANADIAN IDENTITY AND THE ENVIRONMENT

- 5 Diverse Environments, Diverse People 99
Matthew J. Barker
- 6 The Environmental Philosophy of Grey Owl 123
Frank Jankunis

- 7 Going Outside 137
Nathan Kowalsky

PART THREE ANTHROPOCENE THEMES

- 8 Ecological Nationalism: Canadian Politics
in the Anthropocene 159
Byron Williston
- 9 Virtue in the Anthropocene 181
Kent A. Peacock
- 10 Wildlife Conservation in the Anthropocene: The Challenge of Hybridization 199
Jennifer Welchman

PART FOUR ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY AND POLICY IN CANADA

- 11 Water Rights and Moral Limits to Water Markets 217
C. Tyler DesRoches
- 12 Geofunctions and Pluralism in Environmental Management 234
Eric Desjardins, Jamie Shaw, Gillian Barker, and Justin Bzovy
- 13 Being Objective: How Mr Nowhere Threatens the Success of Co-Management 265
Jennifer Jill Fellows

References 285

Index 325