

Feminist Responses to the Neoliberalization of the University

From Surviving to Thriving

Edited by Abby Palko,
Sonalini Sapra,
and Jamie Wagman

LEXINGTON BOOKS
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1 Lavender Carharfts: Queer Work within and outside the Academy Anne Balay	11
2 Neoliberalism in Higher Education and Its Effects on Marginalized Students Dejah S. Carter	19
3 Promoting Feminist Labor in Academe’s Culture of Compliance April Lidinsky	31
4 “Neutral” Student Grievance Processes in White Supremacist Institutions of Higher Education Farhana Loonat	47
5 Planting Seeds of Trans Inclusion: A Conversation with Meghan Buell of TREES, Inc. Meghan Buell and Pam Butler	63
6 Laboring in Line with Our Values: Lessons Learned in the Struggle to Unionize Sonia De La Cruz, Nini Hayes, and Sonalini Sapra	85
7 Feminist Future Making and Nomadic Subjectivity in the Academy Lauren J. Lacey	111
8 Sovereignty as an Indigenous Feminist Intervention Amanda Griffin Linsenmeyer	123

9	There Is No Surviving without Thriving	137
	Abby Palko
10	Compadrazgo and the Wild Woman: An Argument for the Creative Collective as Radical Support for Women in the Academy	153
	Leslie Contreras Schwartz
11	Fighting Shanda: A Jewish Mother Academic's Positionality and Practice at a Catholic Women's College	161
	Jamie Wagman
	Index	175
	About the Editors	183
	About the Contributors	185