

Transnational Education and Curriculum Studies

International Perspectives

Edited by

John Chi-Kin Lee and Noel Gough

Contents

List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Abbreviations	xiv
Foreword	xvii

WILLIAM F. PINAR

PART 1

Introduction and overview	1
1 Introduction: Transnational and international perspectives in curriculum studies, schooling, and higher education	3
JOHN CHI-KIN LEE AND NOEL GOUGH
2 Transnational curriculum inquiry: Building postcolonialist constituencies and solidarities	22
NOEL GOUGH

PART 2

Transnational and international perspectives in curriculum studies, schooling and education	39
3 What makes South Korean students world-class learners? Postcolonial analysis of their academic achievements and learning culture	41
YOUNG CHUN KIM AND JUNG-HOON JUNG
4 The transnational frontiers of Japanese education: Multiculturalism, cosmopolitanism, and global isomorphism	55
HIRO SAITO

- 5 Investment in curricular normativity in Brazil: A critical-discursive perspective 68
ALICE CASIMIRO LOPES
- 6 Reconceptualising transnational perspectives within the Australian school curriculum: A prism for the future, not a mirror of the present 83
NIRANJAN CASINADER
- 7 Environmental/sustainability education in a global context: Stories of political and disciplinary resistances 99
ANNETTE GOUGH
- 8 Transnational meritocracy? Parent ideologies and private tutoring 114
KAREN DOOLEY, ELIZABETH BRIANT AND CATHERINE DOHERTY
- 9 Reconceptualising transnational citizenship: Migration, unconditional hospitality, and urban priority schools 128
NICHOLAS NG-A-FOOK, HEMBADOON IYORTYER OGUANOBI AND LINDA RADFORD

PART 3

- Transnational and international perspectives in higher education 153
- 10 Internationalisation at home: A comparison of approaches in China and Japan 155
HU ZHEN, LIJUN ZHANG AND MEI LI
- 11 Fostering patriotism among university students in Kazakhstan and China: Status and challenges 172
JOHN CHI-KIN LEE AND KURALAY BOZYMBEKOVA
- 12 Teaching and learning in transnational education contexts: Teaching English communication skills in law courses in Singapore 189
SAM JAY YEO AND ANNE CHAPMAN
- 13 Governance of transnational higher education in Vietnam: Issues and ways forward 203
NINH NGUYEN AND JOHN CHI-KIN LEE
- 14 Decolonising the university curriculum: The what, why and how 216
LESLEY LE GRANGE

15	Afterwords: Opportunities and challenges for transnational and international curriculum studies, schooling, and higher education	234
	NOEL GOUGH AND JOHN CHI-KIN LEE

	Index	245
--	--------------	-----