

Social Enterprise in the Higher Education Sector

Edited by

Jamie P. Halsall, Roopinder Oberoi
and Michael Snowden

Cambridge
Scholars
Publishing

CONTENTS

Foreword .....	vii
Subhasis Ray
Acknowledgements .....	ix
Contributors.....	x
Chapter 1 .....	1
Introduction
Jamie P. Halsall, Roopinder Oberoi, and Michael Snowden
Chapter 2 .....	20
Social Enterprise and the Idea of the ‘University’ in 2020
Mark Schofield
Chapter 3 .....	34
Social Enterprise as a Bridge between Public and Private Sectors: Stories from India and the UK
Roopinder Oberoi, Michael Snowden, and Jamie P. Halsall
Chapter 4 .....	56
Delivering Sexual and Reproductive Health Interventions (SRH) through Social Enterprise: The Case of Sri Lanka
Walter Mswaka
Chapter 5 .....	73
Combining Lifelong Learning and Social Enterprise in Integrated University–Professional Learning
Hedvig Skonhoft Johannesen, Petter Øyan, and Ellen Merethe Magnus
Chapter 6 .....	91
Developing Social Enterprise in the Higher Education Setting: A Case Study of the University of Huddersfield
Philip Clegg, Liz Towns-Andrews, and Jamie P. Halsall

Chapter 7 .....	110
Keeping the ‘Social’ in Social Enterprise
Dextor du Boulay
Chapter 8 .....	128
“Who wants a job anyway?” – Student Approaches to Graduate Employability
Ruth Brooks
Chapter 9 .....	152
Integrating Social Enterprise into a Social Science Curriculum
Christopher Cameron, Michael Snowden, and Jamie P. Halsall
Chapter 10 .....	171
Conclusion: The Future Direction of Social Enterprise
Jamie P. Halsall, Roopinder Oberoi, and Michael Snowden	