

ACADEMIC WELL-BEING OF RACIALIZED STUDENTS

EDITED BY BENITA BUNJUN

Fernwood Publishing
Halifax & Winnipeg

Contents

Acronyms	xii
Acknowledgements.....	xiv
A Note from Marginalized Students to Most Faculty
Beverlee MacLellan	1
1 Centring the Academic Well-Being of Racialized Students
Benita Bunjun	2
Canada, a White Settler Society.....	4
Alternative Spaces for Racialized Students’ Scholarship, Resistance, and Leadership	9
Summary of Chapters	21
Intersections and Contradictions Timi (Omotimilehin) Idris	31
2 “It’s in the Past, Get over It!” Is It in the Past?
Vanessa Mitchell	34
Colonial Policies	34
Colonization and Me: The Indian Woman.....	35
The Journey of Self-Determination and Sovereignty.....	38
The Landscape.....	39
Methods	40
Participants and Recruitment	44
Protocol.....	48
Data Analysis	49
Validity and Legitimacy.....	50
Self-Reflection	50
3 Nobodies to Everybody: Pervasive Appropriation and Marginalized Students Fallen Matthews.....	55
Censure Over Solidarity	56
Complicity and the Game	57
Lift as We Climb	59

4	Where Are the Black Female Faculty? Employment Equity Policy Failures and the Overrepresentation of Whiteness
	Isalean Phillip	63
	The Research Problem	63
	Research Background and Methods	64
	Major Findings and Analysis	66
	Theoretical Contributions	71
	Decolonizing Intentions Tammy Williams (Apukji'i E'pit)	74
5	My Long Search for Safe Spaces for Black Learners
	Wayne Desmond	75
	We Stand on the Shoulders of Those who Came Before Us.....	77
6	Spoken Word Saved My Life: Poetry as a Form of Resistance
	Zain Meghji	79
	Muslim boys and haircuts	79
	Taking Space.....	80
	The New Future	83
	Demanding Our Dreams.....	86
	Where does the beauty live? [in the body].....	88
7	Taking a Stand: Privileging Indigenous Knowledge
	Dorothy Christian	91
	Cultural Location.....	92
	Ancestral Collective Memories.....	94
	The Metaphor: Cucw-la7 Gathering Knowledge	95
	The Back Story of Doctoral Research: The Master's Thesis.....	96
	The Doctoral Study — Gathering Knowledge: Indigenous Methodologies of Land/Place-Based Storytelling and Visual Sovereignty.....	98
	Research Purpose and Research Questions: Giving Voice to the Stories and the Land/Visual Sovereignty.....	101
	Indigenous Way of Doing: Research Design and Methodology	103
	Globalization and Global Film Discourses: Indigeneity and Deterritorialization	106
	The Land Is Our University: ⁸ Home-Schooling Myself.....	108
	What's Missing? The Knowledge Gap.....	111
	Conclusion.....	112

8	Envisioning an Intersectional Resilience Mentorship Program for Indigenous and International Students
	Tammy Williams (Apukji'i E'pit)	118
	Culture Shock.....	119
	Resilience.....	119
	Methodology.....	122
	Learning Theory and Non-Western, Traditional Knowledge Transfer Methods	125
	Decolonizing Mentorship.....	126
	Potential Non-Profit Development	128
	Conclusion.....	128
	Brown Folks Jotika Chaudhary Samant	130
9	Towards Healing: Lessons in Surviving Academia from a Queer, Brown Femme Jotika Chaudhary Samant	131
	Stories.....	131
	Diaspora Ache.....	132
	Mother	136
	Pain Held Tight.....	143
	There Isn't Only Pain Inside of You.....	148
10	Settler–Migrant Relationships: A Brown Woman's Journey
	Nathalie Lozano-Neira	150
	Where I Come From	150
	Structural Racism in Academia	152
	Allyship Between Migrant Settlers and Indigenous People	157
	Grounding and Honouring our Experiences.....	160
11	The Embodied Transformation of a Racialized International Student on Coast Salish and Mi'kmaq Territories
	Ahrthyh Arumugam	163
	“Jump Start”ing the Colonized Intellectual	164
	Academic and Community Learning: Constructing my ‘Critical Eye’...	167
	Transforming the Colonized Intellectual	172
	Consensual Allyship and Respectful Solidarity: Ground Up Knowledge.....	175

12 A Way of Being: The Making of Transnational Kinship Relations in Institutions of Higher Learning
Benita Bunjun and Yvonne Brown	179
Part 1: Retrospective	181
Part 2: Benita's Journey of Kin-Making with Yvonne	190
Part 3: Mother/ Friend/ Daughter: The Making and Impact of Transnational Kinship	199
Conclusion.....	208
Unbecoming: Decolonizing the Settler Gaze Diane Obed	214
Contributors	215
Index	218