

CIVILITY, FREE SPEECH, AND ACADEMIC FREEDOM IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Faculty on the Margins

Edited by Reshmi Dutt-Ballerstadt and Kakali Bhattacharya

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1
Reshmi Dutt-Ballerstadt and Kakali Bhattacharya

PART I
Black Bodies: Weaponizing the Personal 11

1 American Perversions or the Incredibly Twisted, Horribly
True Story of How I Got Educated in the Academy 13
Shannon Gibney

2 The Whiteness of Attacks on Black Academics 23
Saida Grundy

3 No Actual Bodies Needed or “Girl, What Are You Looking At?” 31
Taiyon J. Coleman

PART II
Civility, Repression, and Academic Freedom:
Bodies on the Line 39

4 Universities, Civility, and Repression in the Age of
New Media: Surveillance Capital and Resistance 41
Mohan J. Dutta

x Contents

- 5 On the Social Epistemology of Academic Freedom 59
Arianne Shahvisi
- 6 The Rhetoric of Civility as Soft Repression 72
Dana L. Cloud
- 7 What Did We Provoke? BIPOC/WOC Calling Out White
Supremacy in the Academy 89
Reshmi Dutt-Ballerstadt

PART III

Politics of Permissibility and Absurdity: Narratives of Civility 109

- 8 Civility and the Bounds of the Permissible: Scholars of Color Embodying the Very Social–Political Dynamics at the Heart of Their Critiques 111
Matthew Abraham
- 9 The “F” Bomb and the “R” Word 132
Jeong-eun Rhee and Mary Pigliacelli
- 10 Chronicles Exploring Hegemonic Civility and the Evisceration of Academic Freedom for Critical
Womyn of Color 145
Manali J. Sheth and Natasha N. Croom
- 11 Civility as Absurdity: Absurdity as Civility in Higher Education 163
Kakali Bhattacharya
- Afterword: The Civility–Incivility Paradox 179
Johnny E. Williams
- Index* 185