

KNOWLEDGE AND INFORMATION
The Potential and Peril of Human Intelligence

EDITED BY
KURT ALMQVIST AND MATTIAS HESSÉRUS

CONTENTS

Kurt Almquist
Introduction 11

THE ORIGINS OF KNOWLEDGE

Mark Pagel
You Are Not as Clever as You Think 15

Mark Plotkin
How We Know What We Do Not Know 25

John Hemming
Is Modern Information Better Than
Pre-Literate Knowledge? 33

Jessica Frazier
Epic News: “Storying” Current Events in Mythic
Literatures 43

COLLECTING KNOWLEDGE

Richard Miles
Information Delete: The Case of Ancient Carthage 63

Erica Benner
Knowledge Without Authority 73

Peter Burke
The Polymath in the Age of Specialisation 83

Nathan Shachar
From Honest Ignorance to Dishonest Ideology
in Science 97

COGNITION

Suzana Herculano-Houzel
Why 16 Billion Cortical Neurons Set Humans Apart
From Other Animals, But Are Not Enough 109

Mariano Sigman
Language: A Privileged Window Into the Mind 117

Martin Ingvar
Digital Information: A Splash in the Cognitive Space 123

KNOWING YOUR ENEMY

Michael Goodman
Reading the Russian Mindset 137

Gill Bennett
Disinformation in the Information Age 147

Simon Mayall
The Other Side of the Hill 157

ADDICTED TO INFORMATION

Maria Borelius
Time to Regulate the Development of AI 167

Andrew Keen
How to Fix the Future:
Protecting Democracy in a Post-Privacy Age 179

Nicholas Carr
Nasty, Brutish and Dim: Online Life Reconsidered 189

INFORMATION ROADS

Peter Frankopan
The Global Impact of Knowledge Exchange 203

M. Antoni J. Ucerler
The Society of Jesus and its Early Global Networks of Knowledge 215

Christopher Coker
Information Highways and Information Snarl-ups 229

THE STATE OF THE UNIVERSITY

Janne Haaland Matlary
The Vocation of the University in the Age of Subjectivism 243

Elisabeth Kendall
Jihadist Media Strategies 261

Claire Lehmann
Academic Cultures and Explanatory Conflict 273

David Goodhart
Head, Hand and Heart 283

Brendan O'Neill
The Triggering 295

THE STATE OF THE DEBATE

Fraser Nelson

Going Underground: The Intellectual Dark Web 307

Iain Martin

Market Complexity and Remaking the Moral Case
for Capitalism 317

Adrian Wooldridge

Meritocracy and the Rise of Populism 327

Contributors 339