

The Englishization of Higher Education in Europe

Edited by
Robert Wilkinson and
René Gabriëls

Amsterdam University Press

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	9
1 Introduction	11
The tension between monolingualism and multilingualism René Gabriëls and Robert Wilkinson
2 Higher Education in Flanders	37
English as the 'other' language Frank van Splunder
3 The Englishization of higher education in Estonia and Latvia	57
Actors, positionings, and linguistic tensions Josep Soler and Kerttu Rozenvalde
4 EMI in Spain	77
Striving to maintain a multilingual balance David Lasagabaster
5 An ambivalent picture	97
The Englishization of higher education in France Françoise Le Lièvre
6 English in Swiss higher education	121
The pragmatic way Patrick Studer and Aisha Siddiq
7 Englishization in Danish higher education	143
From critical to constructive conceptualizations Slobodanka Dimova, Anna Kristina Hultgren, and Joyce Kling
8 Internationalization vs Englishization in Italian higher education	163
Reframing the issue Amanda C. Murphy and Beatrice Zuaro
9 The place of English in the Russian higher education landscape	189
Elena Belyaeva, Lyudmila Kuznetsova, Olga Nikiforova, and Svetlana Suchkova

10	Multiple dimensions of English-medium education Striving to initiate change, sustainability, and quality in higher education in Sweden Magnus Gustafsson and Jennifer Valcke	215
11	Englishization of Dutch higher education Divergent language policies and practices Robert Wilkinson and René Gabriëls	237
12	The Englishization of Polish higher education Agnieszka Cierpich-Koziet and Elzbieta Mańczak-Wohlfeld	259
13	Englishization ‘under the radar’ Facts, policies, and trends in Austrian higher education Monika Dannerer, Martina Gaisch, and Ute Smit	281
14	Englishization of Croatian higher education Conceptualizations, manifestations, and implications Branka Drljača Margić	307
15	Affect in EMI at a German university Comparing insights from teachers, home, and international students Michelle Hunter and Ursula Lanvers	327
16	Englishization as trap and lifeline Philippe Van Parijs	355
	Contributors	369
	Index	375