DISSIDENT KNOWLEDGE IN HIGHER EDUCATION

EDITED WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY
MARC SPOONER
& JAMES McNINCH

University of Regina Press

CONTENTS

Foreword
The Trump Card: Racialized Speech in the Era of Desperate White Supremacy
Zeus Leonardo xi

Preface
Marc Spooner and James McNinch xxi

Introduction
Marc Spooner and James McNinch xxiii

Part I Historical Perspectives and Overview

Chapter 1 A Dangerous Accountability:
Neoliberalism's Veer toward Accountancy in Higher Education
Yvonna S. Lincoln 3

Chapter 2 The Art of the Impossible—
Defining and Measuring Indigenous Research?
Linda Tuhiwai Smith 21

Chapter 3 An Interview with Dr. Norman K. Denzin on the Politics of Evidence, Science, and Research 41

Chapter 4 An Interview with Dr. Noam Chomsky on Neoliberalism, Society, and Higher Education 55

Part II Activism, Science, and Global and Local Knowledge

Chapter 5 Accumulation and Its Dis'(sed) Contents: The Politics of Evidence in the Struggle for Public Education Michelle Fine 65

Chapter 6 Beyond Epistemicide: Knowledge Democracy and Higher Education Budd L. Hall 84

Chapter 7 Within and Beyond Neoliberalism: Doing Qualitative Research in the Afterward Patti Lather 102

Part III Theorizing the Colonial Academy and Indigenous Knowledge

Chapter 8 Reconciling Indigenous Knowledge in Education: Promises, Possibilities, and Imperatives Marie Battiste 123

Chapter 9 Biting the University That Feeds Us Eve Tuck 149

Chapter 10 Refusing the University Sandy Grande 168

Part IV From Counting Out, to Counting On, the Scholars

Chapter 11 Beyond Individualism: The Psychosocial Life of the Neoliberal University Rosalind Gill 193

Chapter 12 Fatal Distraction:
Audit Culture and Accountability in the Corporate University
Joel Westheimer 217

Chapter 13 Public Scholarship and Faculty Agency:
Rethinking "Teaching, Scholarship, and Service"
Christopher Meyers 235

Afterword: The Defenestration of Democracy
Peter McLaren 253

Contributors 303
Index 309