

Untold Stories of Black Leadership in Higher Education:

Learned, Gifted, and Black

Edited by

W. Franklin Evans

Cambridge
Scholars
Publishing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
W. Franklin Evans
Chapter 1	5
True Mentoring is More Than a Notion
W. Franklin Evans
Chapter 2	10
New Kid on the Block: Being the Youngest Chair in the Division
Tywana Chenault-Hemby
Chapter 3	15
Beyond Kansas: Taking Past Lessons and Navigating Your Oz
David S. Hood
Chapter 4	24
Maneuvering the 4-Year to 2-Year College Shift
Vickie M. Whidbee
Chapter 5	30
Work Hard, Gain the Skills, and Find your Niche
Calvin Brown
Chapter 6	38
When the Music Stops
Sylvia Mason
Chapter 7	46
Trained by the Best to Give My Best
LaRonda Conley
Chapter 8	51
The Power and Security of the Professorship
W. Franklin Evans

Chapter 9	55
God Grant Me the Serenity: HBCU Academic Administrators as Agents of Change
Ronnie Hopkins
Chapter 10	64
Back in Stride Again: Returning to My Passion in Higher Education
Herman "Skip" Mason, Jr.
Chapter 11	69
Just the Two of Us...and More: The Personal Narrative of a Black Couple in Higher Education
Mia Hardy
Chapter 12	76
Leading While Black
Vincent Mumford
Chapter 13	92
The Journey to Executive Leadership in Higher Education: A (Re)Examination of Gender Based Barriers Through a Womanist Lens
Monique L. Akassi
Chapter 14	105
Being Your Best Self
W. Franklin Evans
Contributors.....	110